

The Eye and The Chip 2000 was the first international meeting organized by The Detroit Institute of Ophthalmology. Twenty-two world-renowned faculty members were brought to Detroit to discuss artificial vision. They met at LDM Technologies in Auburn Hills MI on June 16-17, 2000.

The Eye and The Chip: World Congress on Artificial Vision

2000 Attending Faculty

Gregory Auner PhD - Wayne State University
Alan Chow MD - University of Illinois
Vincent Chow - Optobionics TM Corporation
Eugene DeJuan MD - Wilmer Eye Institute Johns Hopkins
Rolf Eckmiller PhD - University of Bonn, Germany
James Ellenbogen PhD - Mitre Corporation
William Heetderks MD PhD - National Institute of Health
Mark Humayun MD - Wilmer Eye Institute, Johns Hopkins
Raymond Iezzi MD - Kresge Eye Institute
Alan Laties MD - University of Pennsylvania
John Loewenstein MD - Harvard Medical School
Ichiro Masaki PhD - Massachusetts Institute of Technology
David Miller MD (Discussant in Chief) - Harvard Medical School
Richard A Normann PhD - University of Utah
Neal S Peachey PhD - Hines VA Hospital
Joseph Rizzo MD - Harvard Medical School
Steffen Suchert - University of Bonn, Germany
John Wyatt MD - Massachusetts Inst of Technology
Tohru Yagi PhD - Nagoya University, Japan
Eberhart Zrenner MD - University of Tubingen, Germany

2000-2002 SPONSORS:

Alcon Laboratories	Hessburg & Carlson Commercial Builders
Bausch & Lomb	The Iacocca Foundation
Buick Division of GM	Kinko's Inc. of Auburn Hills MI
Cadillac Motor Division of GM	LDM Technologies
Covansys	Laboratory for Education and Research in Neuroscience
Crizal by Essilor	Marriott Centerpoint
DaimlerChrysler Corporation	Metro Cars
DIO Friends of Vision	Nidek Technologies Inc.
Donnelly Corporation	Professional Details
Fink Foundation	Raytheon
Mr. John B Ford III Ford Motor Company	The Azar Family
Greenfield Village & Museum	Mr. Robert Valk
Herrick Foundation	Vattikuti Foundation
Mr. and Mrs. John Herlitz	J. Ernest & Almena Gray Wilde Foundation

Schedule of Events

Friday June 16, 2000

Full day conference with each presentation followed by Q & A session

Saturday June 17, 2000

2/3 day conference with each presentation followed by Q & A session

Sunday June 18, 2000

All attendees invited to EyesOn Design (a major international auto exhibition) as guests of DIO

Meals and Refreshments

The registration fee also included continental breakfast, refreshment breaks, lunch on Friday & Saturday, and tickets to EyesOn Design on Sunday, June 18.

“You are responsible for a unique event, unique especially in its atmosphere, which will be remembered by us, the lucky participants. Unique also regarding the planting of numerous seeds for new research avenues and new cooperations. The quest for “Let there be light” begins in our minds and you have made a major contribution to this process.”